

After Four Years: "Gentlemen, You Are Dismissed!"

CAP TOSSING — Traditional at service academies — takes place following the graduates' last order from the Academy's Commandant of Cadets, Brig. Gen. Robert W. Strong, that of, "Gentlemen, you are dismissed." In a burst of enthusiasm the new second lieutenants loft their dress caps high into the air. Their cadet days are over, and now they will begin tasks they prepared themselves for the past four years.

Oath of Office

After the rigorous "five-years in four" course of study at the Air Force Academy, the cadets are commissioned. During the graduation ceremonies they take the oath of office wherein they "... do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office upon which I am about to enter. SO HELP ME GOD."

What Comes Next?

Of the Class of 1963, 490 will be commissioned second lieutenants in the Air Force, five will go to the Marines, three to the Navy, and one man to the Army. A total of 376 graduates are slated for pilot training and 14 will enter the basic navigator's course. One graduate has been named a Rhodes Scholar and will study at Oxford; 49 are to attend graduate school, 38 technical training, five medical training, and one has a direct assignment. Seven members of the class will be graduated later in the year.
